This email address may also be used for requests relating to the exercise of rights under applicable data protection laws.

4. Intellectual Property

The Cervo' application, its name, visual identity, logo, interface, graphical elements, texts, source code, and other elements comprising the application are protected by applicable intellectual property laws.

Unless expressly authorized or permitted by applicable law, any reproduction, representation, modification, adaptation, distribution, or unauthorized exploitation of all or part of Cervo' is prohibited.

Personal content created or uploaded by users remains the property of its respective authors or rights holders.

The terms applicable to user content are further described in the Cervo' Terms of Use.

5. Personal Data

Cervo' processes certain personal data necessary for account creation, service operation, and the provision of its features.

The collection, use, storage, retention, and deletion of personal data are described in detail in the Cervo' Privacy Policy.

Users have the rights provided by applicable data protection laws, including, where applicable, the rights of access, rectification, erasure, restriction of processing, objection, and data portability.

Requests concerning personal data may be sent to:

nextarrlabs@gmail.com

Users may also lodge a complaint with the competent data protection authority, including the French National Commission on Informatics and Liberties (CNIL) where applicable.

6. Third-Party Services

Cervo' uses certain third-party technical services necessary for its operation.

These services may include:

- Supabase, for certain authentication, database, storage, and synchronization functions;
- Firebase Cloud Messaging (FCM), for Android push notifications.

The use of these services is described in greater detail in the Cervo' Privacy Policy.

7. Responsibility

Cervo' implements reasonable measures intended to ensure the security, availability, and proper operation of the service.

However, no digital service can guarantee permanent availability or absolute security.

Cervo' cannot guarantee that the service will always be free from interruptions, errors, technical failures, or data loss.

The conditions and limitations applicable to the use of the service are further described in the Cervo' Terms of Use.

8. Applicable Documents

The following documents complement these Legal Notices:

- Cervo' Privacy Policy
- Cervo' Terms of Use

These documents are made available to users through the Cervo' application and, where applicable, through associated public resources.
